

Dear Friends,

As a reminder, we will start booking Mass intentions for 2021 on Wednesday, October 28. As you know, our Masses tend to book very quickly. That is why I have implemented a new policy, which is also a Diocesan policy.

The 5:00 Mass on Saturday and the 10:30 Mass on Sunday will be "collective intention" Masses. This means that if you book one of those Masses for your intention, more people may also book that same Mass. It is possible, then, that there may be two or more intentions for the same Mass (although it is also possible that your intention may remain the sole intention for that Mass).

The sole reason for this policy is so that we can accommodate people who would like to have a Mass offered for their loved one. As I wrote in one my recent bulletin columns, as pastor I simply don't want to refuse anyone who would like to have an announced Mass celebrated for their intention.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding in this very important spiritual matter.

Sincerely,
Fr. Najim
