

Dear Friends,

Lent begins this Wednesday. Remember to sign up for Best Lent Ever so that you can receive daily inspirational videos. Here's the link for you to sign up: dynamiccatholic.com/le...

This weekend, remember to take the Best Lent Ever Journal home with you. They will be available at all Masses.

We will have three Masses on Ash Wednesday: 7:00am, 12:10pm, and 6:00pm. Due to Covid, the Vatican has revised the way ashes are to be distributed this year. Instead of ashes being imposed on your forehead, the ashes will instead be sprinkled on the top of your head (Note that this is common practice in some parts of the Catholic world). Instead of ashes being distributed during Mass, we will distribute ashes after the final blessing.

During the season of Lent, our daily Mass schedule will remain the same; however, we will have an additional Mass at 6:00pm on Wednesdays. Confessions on Wednesday evenings during Lent will be from 5:00-5:45.

I will continue to do the livestream Monday Meditation at 7:00pm.

Have a great weekend!

Sincerely,
Fr. Najim
